

Ann M. Tomalavage, P.E., PMP, LEED AP

Curriculum Vitae

Registrations

Registered Professional Engineer in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

Certified Project Management Professional (PMP) by Project Management Institute

LEED AP (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design, Accredited Professional) by US Green Building Council

Experience Summary and Areas of Expertise

More than 40 years of professional experience, including 30 years of project management. Expertise in project management training; mentoring project managers; development of project management systems and culture; group facilitation; workflow improvement; environmental planning and policy development; industrial wastewater treatment and hazardous waste management; large-scale environmental characterization program management; environmental permit negotiation. Experience with the following sectors: transportation; pharmaceuticals, inorganic and organic chemicals, information technology, petroleum refining, iron and steel, textiles, public utilities, and electric power generation.

Credentials and Memberships

M.S., Civil Engineering — University of Delaware (1981)

B.S., Civil Engineering — University of Delaware (1973)

B.A., Liberal Arts — University of Delaware (1973)

Member, Project Management Institute (Past President, Delaware Valley Chapter)

Competent Toastmaster

Member, American Society of Civil Engineers (Past President, Philadelphia Section)

Qualified in Myers Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI)

Member, Women's Transportation Seminar

Certified Disadvantaged/Woman-Owned Business—Unified Certification Program (PA & IA)

Employment History

1997-present Malarkey Consulting, Inc. (President)

1987-1997 WESTON (Project Manager; Manager of PM Development)

1984-1987 Pennwalt Corporation (Project Manager)
1977-1984 WESTON (Project Engineer)
1976-1977 Walden Research Division of Abcor, Incorporated
1976 EPA (Region I Construction Grants Program Engineer)
1974-1975 University of Delaware (Bates Fellow)
1973-1974 E.I. DuPont De Nemours, Inc. (Design Engineer)